Springtime in Provence · Burgundy · Beaujolais
Cruising the Rhône and Saône Rivers

aboard the Exclusively Chartered, Deluxe Small River Ship AMADEUS PROVENCE

May 9 to 17, 2018
Dear National Trust Traveler:

Join us for this exclusive, nine-day French sojourn in Provence and the Burgundy and Beaujolais wine regions au printemps (in springtime), the best time of year to visit, when almond and cherry blossoms bloom white and blush and the crimson poppies, colorful primrose and purple irises herald in a new season. Cruise for seven nights from Provençal Arles to historic Lyon along the fabled Rhône and Saône Rivers aboard the exclusively chartered, deluxe AMADEUS PROVENCE, launched in 2017—one of the newest additions to the AMADEUS FLEET.

During your intimate small ship cruise, dock in the heart of port towns and visit six UNESCO World Heritage Sites, including the wonderfully preserved Roman Amphitheater in Arles, the medieval Papal Palace of Avignon and the Roman city of Orange. Tour the legendary 15th-century Hôtel-Dieu in Beaune, famous for its intricate and colorful tiled roof, and picturesque Lyon, France’s gastronomique gateway. Enjoy an excursion to the Beaujolais vineyards for a private tour, world-class piano concert and wine tasting at the Château Montmelas, guided by the châtelaine. Visit the Burgundy region for an exclusive tour of Château de Rully, a medieval fortress among the vineyards which has belonged to the family of your guide, Count de Ternay, since the 12th century.

A perennial favorite, this exclusive travel program is the quintessential Provençal experience and an excellent value featuring a comprehensive itinerary through the south of France when its abundant flora blooms back to life. I encourage you to book now while Early Booking Savings and space are still available!

Sincerely,

Scott Gerloff

Toutes Les Gloires de la France

On the façade of the royal Palace of Versailles is the inscription “A Toutes les Gloires de la France.” In 1837, when King Louis-Philippe dedicated its galleries to “all the glories of France,” the most outstanding minds and figures of the arts, literature, science and politics of the time were in attendance—Victor Hugo, Honoré de Balzac, Alexandre Dumas, Eugène Delacroix—to celebrate the extraordinary contributions the French have made to the Western world.

Today, all the glories of France lie in wait for your discovery during this springtime sojourn—on medieval bridges spanning the Rhône, in abundant Burgundy vineyards and their stately châteaux, in the enchanting quarters of Lyon, in the Arles café that inspired Vincent van Gogh and in the preservation of Provence’s extraordinary Roman ruins, where great history and beauty have been intertwined for centuries. Experience firsthand the remarkable achievements in fine art, cuisine, fashion, architecture, literature, cinema and joie de vivre that have made France so influential across the globe.

Exclusively chartered, deluxe small ship.

Specially designed, one-of-a-kind itinerary cruising two of France’s storied rivers—the Rhône and the Saône—during springtime, the best season to visit.

At least one port call every day—docking in the very heart of a charming French city, town or village.

Visits to six UNESCO World Heritage Sites.

Complimentary house wine and beer with lunch and dinner aboard ship.

Exclusive tour of the Beaujolais wine region’s 10th-century Château Montmelas, guided by the châtelaine, with a specially arranged fortepiano concert and wine tasting.

Private visit to Burgundy’s medieval Château de Rully, a registered monument historique (historic monument), hosted by its ancestral owner.

Les lumières de la ville de Lyon (the lights of the city of Lyon) twinkle in the dusk during a memorable evening cruise into the heart of the city.

All specially arranged excursions are included.

Unique educational lectures.

Arles

Few places on Earth can match the distinctive joie de vivre of Arles. This archetypal Provençal city is home to several of the world’s most majestic Roman monuments, all designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Visit the magnificently restored 20,000-spectator Amphitheater, built in the first century B.C., and the 12th-century Église Saint-Trophime, a former cathedral known for its fascinating Last Judgment-themed portal, a superb example of Romanesque sculpture. Nearby, the subject of Vincent van Gogh’s 1888 painting, The Café Terrace at Night, is still open for business on the Place du Forum.

Avignon

The center of Western Christendom from 1309, when Pope Clement V moved the papal capital here until the Great Schism with Rome (1378), Avignon is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and an enchanting ancient city built on the banks of the Rhône. On a walking tour, visit the grandiose Palais des Papes (Papal Palace), the largest château-fort built in Europe during the Gothic era and the primary testament to Avignon’s golden age. Walk to the splendid Garden of the Popes and the Rocher des Doms, a hilltop park offering spectacular panoramic views of the Rhône Valley. At the river’s edge, see the remaining four arches of one of the finest surviving examples of medieval fortifications, the Pont Saint-Bénézet (Pont d’Avignon), the only bridge built across the Rhône during the Middle Ages.
Pont du Gard
Visit the UNESCO World Heritage-designated Pont du Gard, an exquisitely built 2,000-year-old Roman aqueduct that once supplied over nine million gallons of water daily to the city of Nîmes. This masterpiece of engineering was constructed of limestone cut to fit together seamlessly without mortar, using arches to support the weight.

Orange
Traverse the beautiful French countryside, passing springtime blooms and vibrantly hued stucco houses accented by blue shutters, en route to the Roman city of Orange and its awe-inspiring UNESCO World Heritage Sites. Visit the well-preserved ancient Roman Theater, still hosting performances today, and see the Triumphal Arch, built in the late first century as a tribute to Augustus Caesar and a symbol of Roman imperial glory.

Tournon-sur-Rhône and Tain-l’Hermitage
Facing one another across the Rhône are the twin towns of Tournon-sur-Rhône, one of France’s oldest medieval sites, and Tain-l’Hermitage, surrounded by the rolling, majestic vineyards and granite slopes of the Hermitage appellation.

Arles’ Romanesque architecture reflects its history as a vital port on the Roman road from Italy to Spain.

◆ GENEVA AND THE FRENCH ALPS
Post-Cruise Option

This region of the Ardèche département is said to be the birthplace of the Syrah grape variety, also known as Shiraz, and for its vineyards that produce both red and white Hermitage, the finest and most expensive of all Côtes du Rhône wines.

In Tournon-sur-Rhône, see impressive examples of architecture dating from the 11th, 14th and 16th centuries. Then, enjoy a specially arranged wine and chocolate tasting with a local wine expert on board the ship.

Vienne
A delightful river town located at a scenic bend in the Rhône River, Vienne features a trove of architectural treasures few other towns in southern France can equal. The Romans highly valued this town’s strategic location and endowed it with some of the finest Classical antiquities in France; amongst these are the nearly perfectly preserved Temple d’Auguste et de Livie, built in 25 B.C. in honor of Rome’s greatest emperor, and the Théâtre Romain, a beautifully restored amphitheater at the foot of Mont Pipet that seats up to 13,000 spectators and is still in use today. The town’s most notable medieval landmark is the ornate Cathédrale de Saint-Maurice, which was constructed between the 12th and 16th centuries and combines classic elements of Romanesque and Gothic design.

Lyon
A UNESCO World Heritage Site, the captivating city of Lyon is located at the confluence of the Rhône and Saône Rivers. From lofty Fourvière Colline (Praying Hill), enjoy views of the ornate 19th-century Basilique Notre-Dame-de-Fourvière. Walk the tree-lined streets of the restored Vieux (Old) Lyon, where well-preserved Gothic and Renaissance mansions attest to the wealth of Lyon’s long-standing silk industry. Stroll through the ancient quarter of Saint-Jean and explore the unique, often hidden traboules—narrow, covered pedestrian passageways.

Beaune
Amidst the idyllic Burgundy countryside, visit the enchanting Château de Rully, a picturesque medieval fortress surrounded by Chardonnay vineyards. Count Raoul de Ternay will greet you and guide you on a private tour of the estate, his family’s ancestral home since the 12th century.

Continue to Beaune, founded in the fifth century B.C. and the longtime capital of Burgundy wines, located in the famous Côte d’Or département. This historic city and its surrounding Burgundy terroirs, vineyards and cultural landscape comprise a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Here, tour the legendary Burgundian Renaissance-style Hôtel-Dieu, one of the best examples of 15th-century French architecture, famous for its iconic, colorful tiled roof and once a charitable hospital.

Enjoy time at leisure in the historic, quintessential wine-producing town of Chalon-sur-Saône. Choose to explore lively Place Saint-Vincent, dominated by the Romanesque cathedral and lined with quaint cafés, specialty shops and local wine cellars populated by chic patrons enjoying the spring weather of southern France; visit the museum dedicated to the inventor of the photograph, Joseph Nicéphore-Niépce; or stroll across the picturesque Saint-Laurent bridge.

Cluny
In Burgundy’s Saône-et-Loire département amid green vineyards growing lusher at this time of year, visit the distinguished Benedictine Abbaye de Cluny (A.D. 910), one of the great centers of medieval Christianity. The beautiful and austere remnants of the sprawling abbey complex still provide a fascinating glimpse of what was, until the construction of St. Peter’s in Rome, the largest Christian basilica in the world.

Beaujolais
From the lovely vineyards of Beaujolais, the “land of the golden stones,” France’s youngest and fruitiest wines are cultivated. Located along the banks of the Saône River, this internationally acclaimed wine region has been known to produce more red wine than the Burgundy vineyards of Chablis, Côte d’Or, Côte Châlonnais and Mâconnais combined.

In the verdant heart of Beaujolais, visit the 10th-century Château de Montmelas. Châtelaine Delphine d’Harcoort will greet you upon arrival and guide your exclusive tour through her home. Experience a private, specially arranged performance of fortepiano music by an internationally recognized pianist living in Burgundy and enjoy a wine tasting with local canapés.
The meticulous crafting of the deluxe Amadeus Provence, launched in 2017, sets new standards in design and technology and features the comforts of a refined and traditional hotel and complimentary onboard Wi-Fi.

This exclusively chartered ship offers 70 river-view, air-conditioned, stylishly appointed Suites (284 square feet) and Staterooms (from 172 square feet), among the most spacious of any European river ship. All Suites include a private balcony, and select Staterooms feature a unique floor-to-ceiling panoramic window with an upper half that can automatically lower to create a French balcony. Accommodations have two twin beds (convertible to one queen-size bed), a private bathroom with shower, individual climate control, walk-in closet, telephone, television, writing desk, sitting area, safe and hair dryer.

Freshly prepared continental meals featuring local ingredients are served in single, unassigned seatings in the ship's delightfully scenic Panorama Restaurant featuring floor-to-ceiling windows. Daily meals include early-risers' coffee, buffet breakfast, lunch, afternoon tea, four-course dinner and late-evening snack. Complimentary wine and beer are served with lunch and dinner.

Inviting public facilities are spacious and include the Panorama Bar, Lido Bar, open-air lounge, Amadeus Club with Internet station, beauty salon, boutique, massage room and fitness studio with early morning classes. The Sun Deck has a swimming pool, lounge chairs, shaded awnings, a chessboard and shuffleboard. Guests will also appreciate the complimentary use of an audio headset for listening enhancement during shore excursions. Complimentary bicycles are available for independent pursuits on shore. The ship has an elevator serving all passenger decks except the Sun Deck, and laundry service is available. There is no doctor aboard the ship.

The English-speaking, international crew provides warm hospitality. The Amadeus Provence meets the highest safety standards and is one of the only European river ships to have been awarded the “Green Certificate” of environmental preservation.

Famous for the intricately patterned and brilliantly hued glazed tile roof of its inner courtyard, the Hôtel-Dieu in Beaune functioned as a hospital for the needy between 1443 and 1971 and today operates as a museum.
