MACHU PICCHU AND THE SACRED VALLEY POST-PROGRAM OPTION

February 9 to 14, 2019

Delight in this extraordinary opportunity in Peru, featuring three UNESCO World Heritage sites—Machu Picchu, the majestic “lost city of the Incas;” historic Cuzco, the ancient Inca capital; and Lima, the “City of Kings” founded by conquistador Francisco Pizarro. Explore the lush Sacred Valley and enjoy the colonial and Inca traditions of Cuzco and scenic rail rides past the snowcapped peaks of the Andes Mountains.

From the extraordinary city of Cuzco, travel through the verdant Urubamba Valley to the small village of Chinchero and visit its colorful local market and textile center, where you will enjoy a demonstration of ancient weaving methods. Explore the Urubamba market and visit a workshop where you will learn more about artistic designs of the ancient Peruvian cultures. Admire the spectacular archaeological sites and ancient engineering marvels of the beautiful Sacred Valley, including a visit to the fortress of Ollantaytambo, which stands as a lasting testimony to the powerful and far-reaching Inca Empire.

Here, village craftsmen employ age-old techniques to weave intricate tapestries and fashion colorful pottery.

Despite more than a century of excavation and study, much about the fabled Machu Picchu, built by the Inca where the Peruvian Andes meets the Amazonian Basin, remains shrouded in mystery.

Step back in time while strolling through Cuzco's charming Plaza de Armas, flanked by splendid colonial architecture, including the magnificent Cathedral.

Then, experience the legendary marvel of Machu Picchu. Perched on an awe-inspiring mountain range in the Peruvian Andes, Machu Picchu was obscured from humankind for 400 years until Yale Professor Hiram Bingham literally stumbled upon it in 1911. A century of extensive research and study still has not revealed the secrets of its purpose, its residents or its abandonment; nevertheless, the site has been carefully excavated and preserved.

In the historic Inca capital of Cuzco, see the stone fortress of Sacsayhuamán and the grand Baroque- and Renaissance-style cathedrals and temples that provide a fascinating mix of pre-Columbian and colonial influences. Accommodations are for six nights in ideally located, deluxe hotels in Lima, the Sacred Valley, Machu Picchu and Cuzco.
