Galápagos Expedition

aboard the exclusively chartered, six-star

SILVER ORIGIN

2024 Departure: November 8 to 17

Galápagos Expedition

Immerse yourself in the unique ecosystems that inspired Charles Darwin on this unequaled 10-day Galápagos journey, a singular experience with a bounty of wildlife. Encounter the natural splendor of eight islands, including San Cristóbal, Genovesa, North Seymour, Santiago, Fernandina, Isabela, Santa Cruz and Española Islands.

Each day offers an abundance of the intriguing fauna and flora found on the relatively untouched Galápagos Islands. Enjoy included shore excursions, from guided Zodiac cruises to hiking and snorkeling with the expedition team. Climb Prince Philip's Steps to marvel at sprawling vistas on Genovesa Island, search for spectacular birds on North Seymour Island and discover Santiago Island's beautiful Sullivan Bay. Explore Mangle Point, a nesting site for flightless cormorants; walk with giant tortoises in the lush Santa Cruz highlands and swim alongside playful sea lions near Española Island. Visit a remarkable breeding center dedicated to the preservation of the endangered Galápagos giant tortoise.

Natural history is alive in this kaleidoscopic archipelago, where mystical landscapes and rare land animals reveal the secrets of evolution!

National Trust Tours

Dear National Trust Traveler:

Join us for this extraordinary voyage and share in the wonder of Charles Darwin's revolutionary observations of this remarkable world unto itself. Experience the astounding biodiversity of the UNESCO-inscribed Galápagos archipelago, preserved much as it was when Spanish colonists arrived in 1535. Home to unique reptiles, birds, plants and aquatic life, Darwin's "living laboratory of evolution" continues to inspire the thrill of original discovery in every visitor.

These legendary islands, each with its own ecosystem, teem with endemic flora and fauna, including the flightless cormorant and the marine iguana, without the threat of large land-based predators. The wildlife is uniquely receptive to up-close human company. Only here can you almost touch spiny-backed iguanas and snorkel alongside playful sea lions.

Cruise aboard the exclusively chartered deluxe, all-suite SILVER ORIGIN. This exquisite ship was designed specifically to navigate the hard-to-reach Galápagos archipelago and features a team of expert Ecuadorian guides, Zodiacs and unparalleled luxury. Certified onboard naturalists share their insights during excursions into this extraordinary biome.

All island excursions and activities are included, creating an immersive Galápagos cruise experience. This carefully designed itinerary features the emblematic species and landscapes that define the Galápagos Islands' fragile ecosystem. Complement your cruise with the exclusive Quito Pre-Program Option or the Post-Program Option, combining the fabled Machu Picchu, the Inca citadel of Cuzco, and the breathtaking Sacred Valley. Reserve now while space is still available.

Sincerely,

Meg Annacone-Poretz

PROTECTING GIANT TORTOISES

The famous giant tortoises of Galápagos, with their slow pace and long lifespan, fascinate us. The Galápagos Islands themselves were named for these gentle giants; early Spanish explorers called the tortoises galápagos, which meant saddle, because of the shape of their shells.

In the 18th and 19th centuries, the Galápagos giant tortoises were subject to overexploitation as food by sailors and pirates. Today, their main threats are invasive species, habitat loss, the illegal wildlife trade and poaching. In addition, tortoise eggs and hatchlings are often preyed upon by rats, pigs and voracious ants. On several islands in the Galápagos, conservation centers have been established with the goal of enhancing the survival rate of hatchlings in the wild, thus increasing the islands' tortoise population.

In these sanctuaries, resident tortoises and their hatchlings live in semi-natural habitats. While adults can roam throughout the reserve, free to wallow in mud pools, baby tortoises usually live in protected breeding enclosures. Once juveniles are large enough to survive, typically at around five years old, they are re-introduced into the wild.

Visitors can learn about the history and biology of the giant tortoises as well as the conservation efforts and challenges faced in protecting them.

THE INCOMPARABLE GALÁPAGOS ISLANDS

An astonishing vision of life without humans, the Galápagos Islands represent a truly unique environment. Located six hundred miles off the coast of Ecuador, the archipelago's isolation, combined with the nutrient-rich waters of the Humboldt Current, have created one of the world's richest marine ecosystems. Darwin's "living laboratory," the Galápagos Islands spurred the naturalist's paradigm-shifting work, On the Origin of the Species. Published in 1859, his speculations on natural selection in the role of "aboriginal creations, found nowhere else," inspired one of the most revolutionary scientific theories in history. One of the first and most treasured UNESCO World Heritage Sites, the Galápagos sustains an astounding number of endemic species, which continue to thrive with the absence of natural predators.

10-DAY/9-NIGHT ITINERARY

Depart Home City/ Quito, Ecuador

Nov. 8

Depart home city and fly to Quito. Upon arrival, transfer to the JW MARRIOTT QUITO hotel.

Quito/San Cristóbal, Galápagos Islands/Embark

Nov. 9

Fly to San Cristóbal to embark the SILVER ORIGIN. San Cristóbal, one of the oldest islands in the archipelago, emerged from the sea have a choice of excursions today. You could ride aboard a panga (an inflatable Zodiac) to shore and ascend Prince Phillip's Steps to take in impressive views at the top. Expect to see colonies of Nazca boobies, frigate birds and storm petrels during your walk. Or discover the horseshoe-shaped Darwin Bay, where a beautiful white-sand beach makes a cozy playground for snoozing sea lions and scampering Sally Lightfoot crabs. You may see frigate birds,

British Royal Navy officer. Embark on a guided nature hike across the rocky landscape, marveling at myriad blue-footed boobies, magnificent frigate birds and land iguanas, camouflaged against the arid scrub. Back on board, settle in for lunch while cruising to Sullivan Bay, located on Santiago Island. Get a glimpse into the island's storied geologic history while strolling by surreal rock formations and pahoehoe lava flows, slow-moving lava with low viscosity and a billowy surface. Sullivan Bay is also known for its expansive coral-sand beach and clear waters, where sea turtles and tropical fish flourish. (B,L,D)

Fernandina Island/ Isabela Island

Nov. 12

Young Fernandina Island is one of the world's most volcanically active spots and, since the island is free of introduced species, it is also one of Earth's most pristine island ecosystems. Here there's a high density of marine iguanas, sea lions, Sally Lightfoot crabs, hawks and penguins. It is also one of the few places in the Galápagos to spy the flightless cormorant, an unusual bird who forgot how to fly. Explore the waters here on a Zodiac ride, while padding a kayak, or with a mask and snorkel! Continue to spectacular Isabela Island. Isabela's first visitors were pirates and whalers, who used the island to restock supplies and even hide approximately 2.4 million years ago. After boarding, settle in your stateroom; then gather for a Captain's Welcome Reception at the end of the day. (B,L,R,D)

Land iguana

Genovesa Island

Nov. 10

Anchor in sight of Genovesa Island, home to numerous bird colonies. Here, nutrient-rich, cold waters are ringed by high, protective cliffs, perfect for nesting birds. You will red-footed boobies, herons, finches and mockingbirds, which are abundant on the island. Continue your adventure by snorkeling or swimming, sharing the bay with green sea turtles, sharks, rays and schools of colorful fish. (B,L,D)

North Seymour Island/ Santiago Island

Nov. 11

North Seymour Island was named after Lord Hugh Seymour, a treasure. On a panga ride, marvel at the distinctive rocky shoreline and mangrove forests filled with nesting pelicans and herons. (B,L,D)

Santa Cruz Island Nov. 13

On Santa Cruz Island, travel from the arid, sunny coast to the mist-shrouded highlands. Spend the morning at a unique coffee farm built on land in the giant tortoise's natural migration path. Learn about sustainable living and coffee growing, indulge in a delicious coffee tasting, and keep company with free-roaming giant tortoises in this unforgettable experience! After a delicious lunch on board, visit the Fausto Llerena Breeding Center, which works to preserve and increase the giant tortoise population in the Galápagos Islands by protecting eggs and young hatchlings until the tortoises can be released into the wild. Or get a taste of local (human!) life with a visit to the coastal town of Puerto Ayora, exploring shops, galleries and eateries at your leisure. And since this is still the Galápagos, you may even spot pelicans and sea lions during your outing! (B,L,D)

Española Island Nov. 14

Española Island, the southernmost island of the archipelago, is the breeding site of the unique waved albatross. You might witness these special birds launching themselves into the air currents from the high cliffs. Visit Gardner Bay, a sprawling stretch of pristine white sand, and Suarez Point, where you can choose a short nature walk or an adventure hike. Either way, you're sure to encounter amazing wildlife! (B,L,D)

San Cristóbal Island Nov. 15

San Cristóbal is a birdwatcher's dream. It's the only place in the Galápagos where all three species of boobies — red-footed, blue-footed and Nazca — live together in harmony. In addition, the calm waters around the island support an amazing array of wildlife, such as sea turtles, rays, sea lions and tropical fish. Explore this morning on a Zodiac ride or in the water with a mask and snorkel. After a delicious lunch on board, continue to secluded Cerro Brujo, an eroded tuff cone that is also known as Witch Hill. The area teems with wildlife, and visitors may catch sight of great blue herons, egrets and finches. Enjoy the Captain's Farewell Reception at the end of the day and raise a glass to your epic Galápagos adventure! (B,L,R,D)

San Cristóbal Island/ Disembark/Guayaquil/ Return to Home City Nov. 16 and Nov. 17

Disembark the ship on San Cristóbal and fly to Guayaquil. Enjoy an afternoon at leisure before an overnight flight back to your home city. Arrive home the next day. (B)
