PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Exploring the Inside Passage

Shaped by the Ice Age and sheltered from the Pacific Ocean by one thousand miles of islands lining North America's Pacific Coast, the Inside Passage renders untamed Alaska a picturesque panorama of magnificent glaciers, snowcapped mountains, and pristine wilderness. Stand on the deck of our five-star, all-suite small ship as you cruise protected cliff-rimmed fjords and inlets of serene waters. Watch for wildlife such as bald eagles, harbor seals, humpback whales, and brown bears. Cruise into Tracy Arm Fjord and Endicott Arm Fjord and see the thunderous calving of the Dawes and South Sawyer Glaciers, and explore the Passage's hidden treasure—seldom-visited Elfin Cove. Along the way, encounter the indigenous culture of the Tlingit, onion-domed churches built by Russian fur traders, quirky fishing villages, trading outposts settled by American pioneers, and Gold Rush settlements built over a century ago.
