Discovering Crystal Bridges

A World-Class Oasis of Art & Architecture in Arkansas

with historian John Meffert

October 22–26, 2023

DISCOVERING CRYSTAL BRIDGES

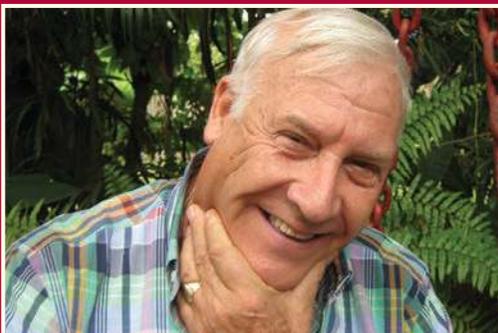

With the unveiling of the spectacular Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art in 2011, Arkansas suddenly hit the map for culture lovers around the United States. Its excellent art collection built by Walmart heiress Alice Walton and its dynamic architecture by Moshe Safdie immediately made it one of the most important museums opened in America in the last 50 years. The museum continues to expand and diversify, including its exciting “Momentary” center for contemporary art that opened in 2020. Beyond Crystal Bridges’ Bentonville campus, Arkansas has a beautiful cultural scene well worth exploring, from emerging young artists to soaring glass-enclosed chapels. This one-of-a-kind tour introduces travelers to artistic and architectural masterpieces spread throughout Northwest Arkansas. Tour museums with experts, learn about ongoing preservation projects, and enjoy fine dining in a variety of restaurants.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 22

Welcome to Bentonville

Arrive independently to the Northwest Arkansas Regional Airport (XNA) and take a group transfer or hotel shuttle to the four-star DoubleTree Suites by Hilton in Bentonville. Check into the hotel and get settled into your room. Enjoy a 5:00pm lecture by study leader John Meffert. Then drive to one of Bentonville's best restaurants for a lovely welcome dinner together. (D)

MONDAY, OCTOBER 23

Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art

Today is dedicated to the art haven that is the Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art. Drive to Crystal Bridges, the brainchild of Alice Walton, daughter of the founder of Walmart, and designed by renowned architect Moshe Safdie. The impressive collection includes works by great American artists. Begin with a guided tour of Frank Lloyd Wright's Bachman Wilson House, which is emblematic of the Usonian style. Then an architectural tour of the museum itself, which incorporates the beauty of its surrounding natural elements. Break for lunch at Eleven, the on-site restaurant at Crystal Bridges. Next delve into collection highlights of the American Art galleries during a self-guided tour followed by free time to further explore the museum's collections and to see Yayoi Kusama's Infinity Mirror room. Return to the hotel in the mid-afternoon or linger at the museum longer to continue exploring its vast collection and extensive sculpture trail and to experience James Turrell's The Way of Color skyspace installation for a breathtaking sunset experience. Gather for a dinner at The Hive. (B,L,D)

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 24

Eureka Springs & Thorncrown Chapel

Drive an hour to the nearby town of Eureka Springs, a Victorian-era spa resort town that still preserves dozens of fine buildings from the 1870s through the 1930s. Stop at Thorncrown Chapel, a beautiful, soaring chapel designed by E. Fay Jones. Then enjoy a special walking tour that will focus on the town's most important architectural jewels. Following lunch together, return to Bentonville. Return to the hotel for an afternoon at leisure or join an optional excursion to Crystal Bridges' newest museum, The Momentary, an old cheese factory turned contemporary art and cultural space. Enjoy free time to see the contemporary exhibitions and to have an independent drink at The Momentary's Tower Bar. Dinner is independent. (B,L)

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 25

A Day in Fayetteville

Drive approximately 45 minutes south of Bentonville to Fayetteville to the E. Fay and Gus Jones house, the former residence of renowned architect Fay Jones. Completed in 1956, it was designed by Jones upon his return to Fayetteville after working in the office of Frank Lloyd Wright. Drive through the impressive campus of the University of Arkansas. After feasting on local barbecue, visit the Mildred B. Cooper Memorial Chapel, a beautiful chapel designed by Jones and Maurice Jennings and commissioned by John Cooper to commemorate his late wife. It makes for a fascinating comparison with Jones' more monumental Thorncrowne Chapel seen the day before. Enjoy cookies and lemonade in a lovely Bella Vista home. After a break at the hotel, be treated to a memorable farewell dinner at one of the city's best restaurants. (B,L,D)

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 26

Departures

After breakfast, check out of the hotel and take the hotel airport shuttle to the Northwest Arkansas Regional Airport (XNA). (B)
