Highlights

- Full-day excursion in the heart of New and Old Delhi with opportunities to stroll through bustling streets and colorful bazaars, including the imperial Chandni Chowk; take an authentic rickshaw ride through the city; and visit a memorial to Mahatma Gandhi.
- Guided tours of Agra Fort, Amer Fort and Hawa Mahal—UNESCO World Heritage Sites that evoke tales of Mughal emperors and storied dynasties.
- Meet the passionate staff at Wildlife S.O.S., an organization dedicated to protecting Indian wildlife. Known for their work rescuing the exploited “dancing bears” of India, Wildlife S.O.S. also helps leopards, elephants, reptiles, fish and more.
- Game drives to watch for the elusive Bengal tiger at Ranthambore National Park and spot the abundant wildlife at the UNESCO-inscribed Keoladeo National Park and bird sanctuary.
- Immersive visit to Jaipur’s majestic City Palace, a sprawling complex that showcases Rajput, Mughla and European architectural influences, paired with a tour of the Jantar Mantar observatory.
- Extended time in Mumbai featuring a guided panoramic city tour plus a guided heritage walking tour. Also take an inside tour of Mani Bhavan—Gandhi’s headquarters and residence while staying in Mumbai.
