Casablanca to Lisbon & Andalusia

aboard the exclusively chartered, small ship

World Traveller

2025 Departure: April 25 to May 4

Transcontinental Tapestry

Follow in the footsteps of ancient mariners on an epic voyage that takes you across two continents from Casablanca, Morocco, to Lisbon, Portugal — featuring one night in Rabat, Morocco, and a seven-night, deluxe small ship cruise. Immerse yourself in sumptuous Moroccan culture, traverse the rich landscape of ancient Andalusia in Spain and experience the best of the Iberian Peninsula on an immersive itinerary that calls at seven spectacular port cities — Casablanca; Tangier; Gibraltar; Cádiz; Seville; Portimão and Setúbal. Stand on the legendary Rock of Gibraltar, referred to by ancient Greeks and Romans as the Pillars of Hercules. Visit the Kasbah and medina in the north African city of Tangiers and enjoy an exquisite performance of traditional equestrian ballet in Jerez de la Frontera. Explore the Royal Alcázar of Seville and discover the walled city of Lagos in the Algarve, Portugal's southern coastal region. Savor a rich tapestry of flavors with culinary experiences that include a Moroccan cooking demonstration, a tasting in Andalusia's renowned "sherry triangle" and a visit to a lavish Setúbal wine country estate on this one-of-a-kind adventure.

National Trust Tours

Dear National Trust Traveler:

Join us on this 10-day, transcontinental journey, featuring the rarely offered combination of legendary Morocco, the fabled British territory of Gibraltar, Spain's captivating Andalusia region and Portugal's breathtaking Algarve coast. Retrace ancient trade routes at the crossroads of Africa and Europe on an itinerary that includes one night in UNESCO-designated Rabat, Morocco, and a seven-night, small ship cruise.

Call at seven spectacular cities — Casablanca; Tangier; Gibraltar; Cádiz; Seville; Portimão and Setúbal — with excursions at every port. Stand on the legendary Rock of Gibraltar, referred to by ancient Greeks and Romans as the Pillars of Hercules. Visit some of the world's most iconic mosques and palaces, a reflection of the region's rich cultural mosaic. Immerse yourself in local culinary traditions with a Moroccan cooking demonstration, a tasting of authentic Andalusian sherry and a visit to a Setúbal winery.

Enhance your adventure with the Marrakech pre-tour extension and/or post-tour extension in Lisbon. Reserve now while Early Booking Savings are still available.

Sincerely,

Meg Annacone-Poretz

Alluring Andalusia

The Andalusia region of Spain has been conquered by myriad civilizations over the millennia — resulting in a compelling cultural mélange of ancient Greco-Roman, Judeo-Christian and Moorish influences. Experience Andalusia’s legendary allure as we cruise from Gibraltar to Cádiz for an excursion to Jerez de la Frontera, a city famous for flamenco dancing, sherry production and a prestigious horse-riding school. Your visit to the Royal Andalusian School of Equestrian Art includes a performance of its iconic “How the Andalusian Horses Dance” show, followed by a sherry tasting at a local winery. Continue your exploration of Andalusian culture in Seville, a city that was once considered the gateway to Spanish trade with the Americas. Stroll through the breathtaking UNESCO-designated palace and gardens of Alcázar, one of the world’s most outstanding fusions of Christian and Mudéjar art. After a morning of touring, which includes a visit to the magnificent Cathedral of Seville, you will have an afternoon at leisure to savor the sights and sounds of this remarkable Andalusian capital.

Cultural Crossroads

Nothing evokes mystery and intrigue quite like Morocco, a multicultural nation rich in royal tradition, delectable food and exquisite architectural treasures. Located directly across the Strait of Gibraltar from Spain, it is the land of colorful souks and lively medinas, mighty mosques and grand palaces. Our journey begins with one night in the UNESCO-designated, Moroccan capital city of Rabat — setting the scene for the tapestry of stories that await as you cruise from cosmopolitan Casablanca to the Andalusian coast of Spain and on to the Iberian Peninsula. Trace the rise and fall of ancient empires that conquered cities in this region, weaving a vibrant mosaic of art, religion and culture. This confluence and collaboration also ushered in advances in mathematics, science, medicine, horticulture and philosophy — sparking the catalyst for global trade at the crossroads of Africa and Europe that would ultimately change the world.

SPAIN

2025 | 10-DAY/9-NIGHT ITINERARY

Departure

Day 1 | April 25

Depart your home city for an overnight flight to Casablanca, Morocco.

Casablanca, Morocco, for Rabat

Day 2 | April 26

Arrive in Casablanca, Morocco, a cosmopolitan city that blends North African and French culture, and travel to the fortified ancient city of Rabat, where you will check in to the Sofitel Rabat Jardin des Roses.

Rabat/Casablanca

Day 3 | April 27

Check out of the hotel for a driving tour of the city before returning to Casablanca to embark the deluxe World Traveller. See the Royal Palace of Rabat — fronted by expansive grounds and the Parliament of Morocco — and the Chellah, a former Roman settlement and the royal necropolis of the 14th-century Merinid dynasty.

Admire the undulating lines of the newly built opera house, Grand Theater, designed by late architect Dame Zaha Hadid.

Continue your tour on foot for a visit to the stately Mohammed V Mausoleum, which contains the tombs of King Mohammed V and his sons. From there you will walk to the Hassan Tower, a lavish vestige of an unfinished 12th-century mosque. On your drive back to the port you will also visit the impressive Hassan II Mosque. Embark the ship and enjoy the Captain's Welcome Reception this evening. (B,L,R,D)

Tangier

Day 4 | April 28

Explore the Caves of Hercules, then travel on to Cap Spartel to see its 19th-century lighthouse and savor the spectacular view. Next, a panoramic drive to Tangier's lively medina takes you past the Marshan quarter, where you may see one of King

Mohamed VI's royal abodes.

Visit the Kasbah, an 18th-century fortress, on a guided walking tour that includes a stroll through the old acropolis. Head to a local restaurant for a Moroccan cooking demonstration and lunch. See weavers and artisans creating their crafts by hand in the souks. Continue through the narrow alleys of Petit Socco, where produce vendors, butchers and flower sellers set up stalls, and then on to Grand Socco Square. This afternoon you will have the option to explore the square at your own pace. (B,L,D)

Gibraltar, United Kingdom

Day 5 | April 29

The Rock of Gibraltar was considered by the ancient Greeks and Romans to be one of the two Pillars of Hercules that marked the boundary of the known world. You will have the option to walk up a steep road to stand on the "Top of the Rock" — a nearly 1,400-foot-high limestone promontory — and enjoy an expansive view across the strait separating Europe and Africa. From there, you'll explore the impressive stalagmites and stalactites in St. Michael's Cave and see the amusing antics of Barbary macaques, the only colony of wild monkeys in Europe. The tour concludes with a visit to the Great Siege Tunnels, excavated by British Army engineers in the late 18th century to provide defense for the colony. (B,L,D)

Cádiz, Spain

Day 6 | April 30

Arrive in the Spanish port of Cádiz for a walking tour. Known today as the home of flamenco, this ancient metropolis dates to Palaeolithic times. Drive to Jerez de la Frontera, a city known for flamenco music and sherry production. Stop at a restaurant for an authentic lunch and wine tasting of local sherry. Visit the Royal Andalusian School of Equestrian Art Foundation for one of its renowned equestrian ballet performances, featuring lively costumes and Spanish music. (B,L,D)

Seville

Day 7 | May 1

Begin your excursion in Seville with a visit to the Royal Alcázar, a fortified 11th century Moorish palace that represents the Islamic and Christian cultures that have ruled over the centuries. Today, the Alcázar is one of the official residences of the Spanish royal family and the oldest royal palace in Europe that's still in use. Visit the magnificent Cathedral of Seville — the largest Gothic building in the world. (B,L,D)

Portimão, Portugal for Lagos

Day 8 | May 2

Travel to the ancient maritime port of Lagos for a visit to the statue of Infante Dom Henrique and the intricately carved Church of San Antonio. You will also learn more about the somber history of slavery in Lagos during the 15th century with a visit the Mercado de Escravos, site of the first slave market in Europe. (B,L,D)

Setúbal

Day 9 | May 3

Drive through the ancient city of Setúbal and its legendary vineyards. Visit one of the region's acclaimed wine cellars and estates, and stroll through its beautiful gardens on this immersive tour. Return to the ship for the Captain's Farewell Reception. (B,L,R,D)

Lisbon/Disembark ship/ Return to home city
