A World of Discovery

Old Havana. Discover La Habana Vieja on a guided walk through the four historic main squares. See Spanish-colonial architecture and feel the rhythm of local life in the lively plazas. Then, stop in at Dador, a clothing store founded by three Cuban women, to talk with the staff about the challenges of starting and owning a business in Cuba. Visit the historic Hotel Nacional, circa 1930.

Cuban Activist. Meet social psychologist Norma Guillard to watch the documentary, "Maestra," and learn about her important work with the Cuban Literacy Campaign, followed by an engaging discussion.

National Museum of Fine Arts. Wilfredo Benítez Munõz of the Ludwig Foundation guides you through the Cuban art museum.

Vintage Convertible Ride. Feel the warm sea breeze as you cruise in a privately owned 1950s American convertible along Havana's evocative Malecón sea drive.

Jewish Culture & Cuban Dance. Visit the Ashkenazi Community Center to gain insight into Havana's Jewish culture. Stop by the renowned Malpaso Dance Company to learn about the elite dancers' passions and dreams, and watch them rehearse.

La Finca Vigía & Ludwig Foundation. Today, tour Ernest Hemingway's home and museum. Later, engage with Cuban artists at the Ludwig Foundation, which protects and promotes Cuban artists and culture.

Matanzas. Drive to this culturally rich city, admiring scenic views of the Yumuri Valley en route. In Matanzas, step inside to marvel at the timeless elegance of the neoclassical Sauto Theatre. Pass through the elegant French Quarter and stop in the city center to delight in a local choir performance and interact with the singers. Walk around the historic area and La Libertad Park, dotted with monuments, and visit a well-preserved French-style pharmacy, circa 1882.

Cuban Market & Eclectic Alley. Take a guided walk to encounter daily Cuban life. Stop at a local street market and continue to the artsy El Callejón de Hamel alleyway, pulsing with rumba and vibrant street art.

Inside an Art Studio. Visit Casa Fuster, the home and studio of Picasso-inspired Cuban artist José Fuster. See his vibrant mosaics, learn about his work and relish lunch here. Then, visit Casa de la Cultura, promoting dance, music, and culture, and enjoy time engaging with the staff and children.

Salsa. Cuban dancers demonstrate salsa!

Las Terrazas. Travel to scenic, agricultural Cuba to a model socialist community. Visit a daycare center, doctor's office, artist's studio and coffee shop, followed by a fresh lunch with locally grown organic vegetables.
