National Trust Tours

Dear National Trust Traveler,

Experience the culture-rich cities of Madrid and Barcelona on this marvelous, eight-night immersion in art, architecture, history and cuisine!

Begin in Madrid with an exploration of great Spanish artists. See works by Diego Velazquez, El Greco, Francisco de Goya and more during a private tour of the world-class Prado Museum. Then, visit the grand Royal Palace in Madrid to view opulent rooms, lavish decorations and an extensive collection of art. In UNESCO-inscribed Toledo, see historic sites, such as the magnificent Puerta de la Bisagra and the Gothic Cathedral. Cap off your visit with a viewing of an El Greco masterpiece painted around 1586.

In Barcelona, walk the Gothic quarter along medieval streets and bridges to see historic landmarks. Then, experience the surreal works of Antoni Gaudí, including the enchanting Parc Güell and the famous La Sagrada Família basilica. Plus, visit the extraordinary, Art Nouveau campus of Hospital of Sant Pau and choose from included, enriching excursions to Casa Amatller or the Jewish Quarter.

Along the way, learn to cook delicious, rustic Catalan dishes during a hands-on culinary class and enjoy independent exploration in both Madrid and Barcelona.

This exceptional program has been thoughtfully designed with educational enrichment from expert guides and lecturers. Cultural Capitals of Spain is sure to be a crowd-pleaser, so guarantee your spot by making your reservation today!

Sincerely,

Meg Annacone-Poretz
Director, National Trust Tours

This evening, enjoy a Welcome Reception at the hotel followed by dinner at a local restaurant.

Day 3 | Madrid

---

Madrid's Art & Architecture. Set out on a panoramic tour of Madrid with a stop at the Plaza Mayor, the esplanade in the city center considered a symbol of Madrid. Then, relish a private visit to the acclaimed Prado Museum, holding pieces by prominent artists, including Velázquez, El Greco, Goya and Bosch.

Savor a group lunch at a local restaurant.

Palacio Royal. After lunch, visit the grand Royal Palace, the official residence of the Spanish royal family in Madrid and the location for state ceremonies and important events. Completed in 1764, the Baroque-style palace is one of the largest in Europe, with more than 3,400 rooms.

Day 4 | Toledo | Madrid

---

Toledo. Tour this UNESCO-inscribed city to see notable sites, such as the magnificent Puerta de Bisagra and the Synagogue of Santa María la Blanca. Explore the vast interior of the Gothic Cathedral of Toledo, and then visit the Church of Santo Tome to view El Greco's enormous masterpiece, "The Burial of the Count of Orgaz," painted around 1586.

Enjoy a group lunch at the Parador de Toledo.

Day 5 | Madrid

---

Free Time: Relish a full day to explore Madrid at leisure. Consider day trips to Segovia or Avila, or visit other renowned art museums in Madrid.

---

Day 6 | Madrid | Barcelona

---

After an early breakfast, transfer 🚗 to the station to board your direct train to Barcelona. Arrive and enjoy some free time and lunch on your own before joining the walking tour.

Barcelona's Gothic Quarter. Take a guided tour of the labyrinth of narrow streets in the Barri Gòtic, old city, where medieval Barcelona flourished. Stroll Carrer del Bisbe, where the Neo-Gothic Bishop's Bridge, Ponte del Bisbe, connects government buildings. Also, see the Plaça de Sant Jaume, the current seat of local and regional government; the Plaça del Rei, the historic powerhouse of medieval Catalonia; the 13th-century Cathedral of Barcelona; and remnants of the city's Roman walls.

Check in to the Renaissance Barcelona Hotel and join your group later for dinner in the hotel.

Day 7 | Barcelona

Enrichment: Modernism & the Architecture of Gaudí.

Gaudí's Barcelona & Catalan Modernism. Today, experience the UNESCO-inscribed, surreal works of Antoni Gaudí. The Spanish architect was a leading exponent of the Art Nouveau movement in Europe, characterized by intense ornamentation and organic lines. On a walking tour, visit Gaudí's playful Parc Güell to see architectural elements of colorful mosaics, organic shapes and imaginative structures, such as serpentine benches and the dragon stairway and fountain.

Savor lunch at Can Cortada, an atmospheric Catalan farmhouse restaurant.

Hospital de Sant Pau & La Sagrada Família. After lunch, visit the extraordinary UNESCO World Heritage site, the Art Nouveau campus of the former hospital, Sant Pau Recinte

Plaça Reial, Gothic Quarter, Barcelona

Modernista, Hospital de Sant Pau, regarded for its singular beauty and sensitivity to design. Finish the day with a walk along the Avinguda Gaudí, one of the city's most historic avenues, to see Gaudí's most famous work: La Sagrada Família. The still unfinished, magical, surprising and sometimes controversial basilica has become the symbol of Barcelona.

Day 8 | Barcelona

🌍 PYJ | Choose one of these excursions:

- Casa Amatller. Walk the Passeig de Gràcia and take in prime examples of the Modernist movement in Barcelona before visiting Casa Amatller House Museum to discover the elements of Catalan Modernist architecture.
- Barcelona's Jewish History. Explore the history of the Catalan Jews with a walk through Barcelona's old Jewish Quarter. Visit Casa Adret, an enchanting 13th-century palace-house that is now a Jewish cultural and research center called Mozaika's Hub.
