Dear National Trust Traveler,

Get ready for another year of travel, where choices abound. As trusted veterans of the affinity travel business, National Trust Tours is uniquely qualified to provide life-changing experiences farther afield as well as in tried-and-true destinations. The new, the different, and the exotic are sparking wanderlust for those who are longing to explore the unexplored while being engaged and well looked after before and during their travels. But fear not, the more familiar and closer to home destinations are as popular as ever and here for the taking.

A fantastic fleet of ships are featured on a dozen programs in 2025 that crisscross European waters, the UK, and the coast of northern Africa. Get to know the World Navigator and the World Traveller—ships that more closely resemble private yachts—with their intimate size, ample and well-appointed staterooms, and relaxed and inviting public spaces.

Tours—particularly cruises—continue to sell out quickly, making it best to register early to ensure your cabin of choice. We look forward to welcoming you on your next adventure

Sincerely,

Meg Annacone-Poretz, Director, National Trust Tours

Intimate Yachts Redefine Luxury Cruising

From the time you step aboard one of Atlas Ocean Voyages' deluxe small ships, you will be transported into a world of luxury. Each of its 100 staterooms and suites (ranging from 185 to 465 sq. ft.) include a marble spa bath and spacious living room or sitting area. With globally inspired cuisine, unlimited premium beverages and an ambiance of relaxed sophistication, the Atlas fleet takes you to intimate ports not accessible to larger vessels. Select one (or more!) of our 12 itineraries aboard the World Traveller, World Navigator and World Voyager in 2025. See inside for details.
