On a guided walk, delight in its majestic, fortified capital. See stunning views of the Grand Harbor from the Upper Barrakka Gardens, visit the glittering St. John's Co-Cathedral and tour stately Casa Rocca Piccola, a 16th-century palace.

Mdina, Rabat & Hagar Qim. See the landmarks of nearby Rabat and visit Domus Romana, a museum on the site of a Roman house, featuring mosaic floors and artifacts. Next, on the southern coast, marvel at the impressive Hagar Qim temples, built more than 5,500 years ago with massive stones.

Island of Gozo. On this scenic island in the Maltese archipelago, ponder some of the oldest free-standing stone structures in the world at the Neolithic Ggantija Temples. Then, go inside the picturesque, hilltop Cittadella in Victoria, the island's capital, on a walking tour. Later, see the patchwork pattern of rock-cut salt pans along Gozo's Xwejni Bay, and learn how a local family harvests the sea salt, a tradition that dates to Phoenician and Roman times.

Sicily's Mosaic Masterpieces. In Piazza Armerina, visit the Villa Romana del Casale, a fourth-century villa adorned with some of the world's finest Roman mosaics. Study more than 40 floors impeccably crafted with scenes of wild animals, hunting, myths, female athletes, domestic life and more.

Taormina. See the historic medieval center of this lovely resort town with your guide, and visit its Greek theater, which features stellar views of the sea and Mount Etna.
