A World of Discovery

AHI Connects | Pizza Cooking Demo. Get great tips for making tasty Sicilian pizza!

Mdina, Rabat & Hagar Qim. Stroll through charming Mdina, Malta's ancient walled capital, and admire the regal city gate, the homes of Malta's noble families and St. Paul's Cathedral. Nearby, see Rabat's landmarks and visit Domus Romana, a museum on the site of a Roman house. Head next to the coast and marvel at the impressive Hagar Qim temples, built more than 5,500 years ago with massive stones.

Valletta. Spanning almost 8,000 years, Malta's rich history includes periods of rule by the Phoenicians, Romans, Byzantines, Arabs, the Order of St. John and the British, among others. On a guided walk within its majestic capital, gaze over the stunning Grand Harbor from the Upper Barrakka Gardens, step inside the glittering St. John's Co-Cathedral which houses Caravaggio's masterpiece, "The Beheading of John the Baptist," and tour Casa Rocca Piccola, a stately, 16th-century palace.

Island of Gozo. On this scenic island, ponder some of the oldest free-standing stone structures in the world at the Neolithic Ggantija Temples. Then, travel up to the picturesque, hilltop Cittadella in Victoria, the island's capital, on a walking tour. Later, see the patchwork pattern of rock-cut salt pans along Gozo's Xwejni Bay, and learn how a local family harvests the sea salt, a tradition that dates to Phoenician and Roman times.

Sicily's Mosaic Masterpieces. In Piazza Armerina, visit the Villa Romana del Casale, a fourth-century villa adorned with some of the world's finest Roman mosaics. Study more than 40 floors impeccably crafted with scenes of wild animals, hunting, myths, female athletes, domestic life and more.

Agrigento's Valley of the Temples. Revel in magnificent Doric temples that attest to the glory of ancient Agrigento, founded by the Greeks around 580 B.C. View the Temples of Concordia, Juno, Hercules and others with insights from your guide.

Syracuse. At the Archaeological Park, see the remarkable ruins of this onetime Greek colony founded in 734 B.C. Take in the Greek theater; the Latomia del Paradiso, a former limestone quarry; and the Ear of

Temple of Concordia

Dionysius, a cave famed for its acoustics. Stop next at a basilica to see Caravaggio's "The Burial of St. Lucy" before continuing to Ortygia, Syracuse's atmospheric island old town. Admire its baroque beauty and go inside the splendid Cathedral of Syracuse.

Taormina. Tour the medieval center of this resort town and visit its Greek theater with gorgeous views of Mount Etna and the sea.
