Casablanca to Porto & Andalusia

May 4 – May 13, 2026

Retrace ancient trade routes across two continents and four countries on an eight-night cruise from Casablanca, Morocco, to Porto, Portugal, aboard the exclusively chartered World Voyager. Visit spectacular port cities along the northeast African coast and the Iberian Peninsula — Casablanca, Rabat and Tangier, Morocco; Málaga and Seville, Spain; Gibraltar, United Kingdom; and Portimão and Lagos, Portugal. Step into Casablanca’s remarkable Hassan II Mosque and admire the lovely Generalife and Niaba gardens. Stand on the legendary Rock of Gibraltar, called the Pillars of Hercules by ancient Greeks and Romans, duck inside St. Michael’s Cave and laugh at curious Barbary macaques. Wander through Lagos, a walled maritime city brimming with wonderful Portuguese architecture. While all these destinations share a legendary devotion to hospitality, each is markedly unique and will add depth to your travel mosaic.

Exclusive Highlights

- Cruise from the Iberian Peninsula to Africa on a thrilling 8-night cruise.
- Enjoy exclusive excursions to the Hassan II Mosque and the Mohammed V Mausoleum.
- Experience 4 UNESCO World Heritage Sites: the Royal Alcázar and Cathedral, Seville; the Alhambra Palace in Granada; and historic Rabat.
- Stroll through Tangier’s sensorial-rich, exotic souks

National Trust Tours

Dear National Trust Traveler:

Join us on this 10-day, transcontinental journey that features the rarely offered combination of Portugal's breathtaking Algarve coast, Spain's Andalusia region, the fabled British territory of Gibraltar and culture-rich Morocco. On an eight-night cruise aboard the deluxe World Voyager, savor finely curated days filled with natural vistas, spectacular architecture, UNESCO-listed World Heritage Sites and outstanding cuisine.

Call at lively cities with enriching excursions at every port. Be both historian and pleasure-seeker as you take in sun-drenched coastlines, summit the Rock of Gibraltar, stroll through the Generalife Gardens, and uncover the complex histories and cultures of these destinations. Witness some of the world's most celebrated citadels, churches and mosques, reflections of each region's cultural tapestry.

Enhance your adventure with the Marrakech Pre-tour extension and/or Post-tour extension in Lisbon. Reserve now while Extended Savings are still available.

Sincerely,

Meg Annacone-Poretz
Director, National Trust Tours

Day 1 | May 4

Depart your home city for an overnight flight to Casablanca, Morocco.

Day 2 | May 5D

Casablanca, Morocco | Embark

Upon arrival, embark the deluxe World Voyager.

Say hello to fellow travelers over dinner aboard the ship.

Day 3 | May 6B-L-R-D

Casablanca | Rabat

Cosmopolitan Casablanca seamlessly blends North African and French culture. Visit the impressive Hassan II Mosque, perched on a promontory by the ocean. Admire its marble flooring and Moroccan details. Celebrated as one of Africa's largest mosques, it is one of only two open to non-Muslim visitors.

In Rabat, discover local flavors during lunch. Traditional dishes often revolve around couscous which is served with lamb, chicken, fish and vegetables such as tomatoes, eggplant, peppers, garlic and olive oil.

A panoramic tour of Rabat follows. Gaze at the Royal Palace of Rabat — fronted by expansive grounds and the Parliament of Morocco — and the Chellah, a former Roman settlement and the royal necropolis of the 14th-century Merinid dynasty. Notice the undulating lines of the newly built Grand Theater. Continue on foot to see the Hassan Tower, a marvel of architecture, and visit the stately Mohammed V Mausoleum, which contains the tombs of King Mohammed V and his sons.

Join fellow travelers for a Captain's Welcome Reception and dinner tonight.

Day 4 | May 7B-L-D

Tangier

Over the centuries, ancient Tangier has welcomed writers, adventurers and artists — such as Matisse and Eugène Delacroix. Set off to explore the labyrinthine old medina and legendary souks. Hear captivating stories as you hunt for local wares and see weavers and artisans creating crafts. Visit the vibrant green space of Niaba Gardens, filled with bountiful floral displays, towering palm and cypress trees, fountains and views of the sea.

Savor local cuisine over lunch. Leisure time offers opportunity

Cathedral of Seville, Spain

Alhambra, Granada, Spain

to peruse the souks and immerse yourself in Tangier's daily life and culture. Spices, ceramics, baskets, Berber carpets and traditional slippers are favorite souvenirs!

Day 5 | May 8 B-L-D

Málaga, Spain | Granada

Arrive in Málaga, birthplace of Pablo Picasso, and board a coach for a panoramic drive to Granada and the UNESCO World Heritage-listed Alhambra. While roaming this ancient citadel, learn about its significant Nasrid legacy and walk through the tranquil Generalife Gardens, lauded for their plant life, fountains and reflecting pools.

Day 6 | May 9 B-L-D

Gibraltar, United Kingdom

The Rock of Gibraltar is considered by the ancient Greeks and Romans to be one of the two Pillars of Hercules that marked the boundary of the known world. If you wish, walk up a steep road to stand on the "Top of the Rock" and enjoy expansive views across the strait separating Europe and Africa. Next, witness the impressive stalagmites and stalactites in St. Michael's Cave and watch the amusing antics of Barbary macaques, Europe's only colony of wild monkeys. The tour concludes at the Great Siege Tunnels, excavated by British Army engineers in the late 18th century to provide defense for the colony.

Day 7 | May 10 B-L-D

Seville, Spain

This culturally rich Andalusian city will delight you. Stroll through the iconic Plaza de España, with its grand semi-circular design and colorful ceramic tiles. See Seville's highlights, including the magnificent UNESCO World Heritage-listed Cathedral de Sevilla, home to Christopher Columbus' tomb, and the UNESCO World Heritage-inscribed Alcázar of Seville, a stunning palace featuring intricate

Casablanca, Morocco

Rock of Gibraltar, United Kingdom

Infante Dom Henrique Square, Lagos, Portugal

Mudéjar designs and lush gardens.

Return to the ship or stay in town to craft your own path. Perhaps sample some Spanish tapas with a sherry at a prototypical tapas bar.

Day 8 | May 11 B-L-D

Portimão, Portugal | Lagos

Enjoy a morning of cruising before arriving in Portimão. Following lunch, head out on a tour of Lagos. See the statue of Infante Dom Henrique — a monument to Prince Henry the Navigator — and the Church of San Antonio, a fine example of baroque architecture. Witness the historical Mercado de Escravos building, the site of Europe's first slave market. The town thrived on maritime trade and shipbuilding and, later, the transatlantic slave trade, as Lagos housed Europe's first slave market in 1444.

Return to the ship for dinner.

Day 9 | May 12 B-L-R-D

Day at Sea

Spend a relaxing day cruising at sea as the ship glides along azure waters. Head to the deck with a book, watch the lovely coastline drift by and catch up with friends.

Gather for a Captain's Farewell Reception and dinner this evening. Raise a toast to your remarkable adventure!

Day 10 | May 13 B

Porto | Disembark | Return to Home City

Following breakfast, disembark and transfer to the Porto airport for your return flight home.

Note: This itinerary is subject to change due to local conditions.

Cultural Crossroads

Nothing evokes mystery and intrigue quite like Morocco, a multicultural nation rich in royal tradition, delectable food and exquisite architectural treasures. Located directly across the Strait of Gibraltar from Spain, it is the land of colorful souks and lively medinas, mighty mosques and grand palaces. Our journey begins in Casablanca and the UNESCO-designated capital city of Rabat — setting the scene for the tapestry of stories that await as you cruise to the Andalusian coast of Spain and the Iberian Peninsula. Trace the rise and fall of ancient empires that conquered cities in this region, weaving a vibrant mosaic of art, religion and culture. This confluence and collaboration also ushered in advances in mathematics, science, medicine, horticulture and philosophy — sparking the catalyst for global trade at the crossroads of Africa and Europe that would ultimately change the world.
