National Trust Tours

Dear National Trust Traveler,

There's much to discover on this wonderful, eight-night journey to Slovenia and Croatia. Experience a crossroads of history, culture and traditions, plus an enticing mix of Central European, Mediterranean and Slavic influences. Along the way, dreamlike visions of rolling vineyards and quaint villages will come to life, and you'll lean into the region's slower pace of living.

Begin in Slovenia, brimming with rich heritage, old-world architecture and sensational gastronomy. Stay for four nights in vibrant Ljubljana and visit bewitching villages, including Lake Bled and sun-splashed Piran. Roam through Postojna Cave and gaze in awe at a fortress built into a cliff. Get to know local culture in Ptuj, Slovenia's oldest town, and see Maribor's famous grapevine. Cross into Croatia to stay in Rovinj, a relaxing and photogenic fishing port. Here, delve into the many wonders of Istria, including Pula's Roman theater, Grožnjan's artistic heritage and the truffle, a favorite delicacy. Guarantee your spot by making your reservation today!

This exceptional program has been thoughtfully designed with educational enrichment from expert guides and lecturers. It also offers you the security, ease and value of group travel with plentiful opportunities for independent exploration. You'll appreciate the camaraderie with other curious travelers and make your own discoveries during free time.

Sincerely,

Meg Annacone-Poretz
Director, National Trust Tours

Lake Bled

Day 1 | In Transit

Depart gateway city for Ljubljana, Slovenia. 🌍

Day 2 | Ljubljana, Slovenia

Upon arrival, transfer 🚗 to the hotel. Gather tonight for a Welcome Reception and Dinner.

Day 3 | Ljubljana

Enrichment: *An Insider's Guide to Slovenia.

A local expert shares insights into Slovenia's modern society and economic future.

Slovenia's Capital Walking Tour. Witness Ljubljana's old town filled with baroque, Art Nouveau and Renaissance buildings. Browse the Central Market and Prešeren Square, named after Slovenia's national poet France Prešere. Pass through Congress Square, see the University of Ljubljana and enter the pretty Ljubljana Cathedral. Next, enjoy cruising on the Ljubljanica River, bordered with weeping willows, outdoor bistros and pastel buildings. Gather for a group dinner tonight. Meat and fish dishes, strudels, risottos and pastas characterize Slovenian cuisine.

Day 4 | Lake Bled | Ljubljana

Alluring Lake Bled & Bled Castle. This special alpine setting boasts sweeping vistas. Soak up the panoramas from your vantage point at cliff-top Bled Castle. Tour the towers, ramparts and terraces, and browse the museum with its collections of jewels and weaponry. Descend to the lake and glide aboard a pletna boat to Bled Island, home to the Church of the Assumption of Mary and a fabled wishing bell.

🌍 AHI Connects | Apiary Visit. Drive to a bee farm to learn about the significance and history of Slovenia's thriving api-tourism industry. With over 10,000 beekeepers spread across the country, Slovenia is aptly referred to as the "cradle of beekeeping." Gain insight into the Carniolan honey bee and discover the variety of products produced with their honey.

Dine on regional favorites for an authentic lunch. Dinner is at leisure this evening. Explore the local food scene to find a variety of dishes including burgers, Mediterranean cuisine and more.

Day 5 | Ptuj | Maribor | Ljubljana

Northeastern Slovenia. Journey through sunny hills and meadows bursting with color into northeastern Slovenia. Begin at Ptuj, Slovenia's oldest town. Then, continue to the heart of Maribor to see The Old Vine, a famous vine of the Žametovka variety, one of Slovenia's oldest indigenous varieties. Next, visit the Maribor Cathedral, built as a Romanesque building in 1248 and dedicated to Saint John the Baptist. Cap off the excursion at a local winery and settle in for a wine tasting and lunch. This prominent wine region is steeped in viticulture and is known for producing world-class vintages.

Day 6 | Postojna Cave | Piran | Rovinj, Croatia

Postojna Cave & Predjama Castle. At Postojna Cave, ride a mini-train into an expansive karst cavern lit with chandeliers. Pass by stalactites, columns and other rock formations, and learn about the cave's fascinating ecosystem, which is home to 100 different species. Take a guided walking tour to gaze at the cave's most famous stalagmite. The next stop is Predjama Castle, an 800-year-old Renaissance fortress built dramatically up a 400-foot cliff face. Admire the magnificent construction; then step across the drawbridge and trace a path through the Middle Ages while browsing the castle chambers and living quarters.

Venetian architecture, Piran

Rovinj

Piran Along the Slovene Coast. Succumb to the allure of the Adriatic coast in the pretty fishing village of Piran. During a walking tour, discover Piran's Venetian-style architecture and view Gabrielli Palace and Tartini Square, named after violinist Giorgio Tartini. Enter St. George's Parish Church, overlooking Piran. Visit a shop that produces sea salt, a popular souvenir. Piran salt is known for its outstanding quality and one can find an assortment of bathing salts, salt mixtures and salt scrubs. Continue to Croatia and check in to the hotel.

The Old Vine, Maribor

Dinner is on your own this evening. Istrian cuisine is flavorful and fresh.

Day 7 | Pula | Rovinj

Enrichment: Istria, a Blend of Cultures & Traditions. Gain an understanding of the traditions running deep on the Istrian coast.

Pula & Rovinj. Explore two beloved towns of Istria today, beginning at the coastal city of Pula. Enter Pula's well-preserved Roman theater, the sixth largest of its kind. Stroll through a farmer's market where locals sell fresh fruit, souvenirs, sachets of lavender and truffle products. After an included lunch, head back to romantic Rovinj. The town's small harbor is filled with colorful fishing vessels and flat-bottomed batana boats. Walk through the endearing old town, passing rainbow-hued buildings, Venetian architecture, twisting narrow streets and the Church of St. Euphemia, Istria's largest baroque church.

Postojna Cave, Slovenia
