WITNESS THE 2026 TOTAL SOLAR ECLIPSE ICELAND & GREENLAND ARCTIC ADVENTURE ABOARD EXPLORIS ONE

August 5 – 15, 2026

The April 2024 total solar eclipse sparked unprecedented global fascination. Now's the perfect time to set your sights on the next total solar eclipse: August 12, 2026. On our 11-day Arctic expedition aboard Exploris One, witness this rare phenomenon as you cruise round-trip from Reykjavík, Iceland, and along Greenland's less-traveled yet spectacular east coast. Guided by a professional astronomer with special glasses and telescopes, view the total solar eclipse from a prime, yet little-known, viewing location—tiny, remote Kap Daussy in eastern Greenland—chosen for optimal conditions of clear skies, extended totality, and a vast, picture-perfect Arctic expanse as your backdrop.

This celestial event is simply one of the once-in-a-lifetime experiences that guests will have on this exclusive journey. Aboard Exploris One, custom-designed for polar waters, accompany naturalist guides and expert lecturers to see icebergs up close via Zodiac excursions and explore geological wonders and glaciers unseen elsewhere on Earth. Meet residents of Inuit settlements for insights into local culture. In private island sanctuaries, observe Arctic animals like polar bears, musk oxen, and colonies of puffins in their natural habitats. Join us for this unforgettable adventure featuring a rare astronomical spectacle!
