COLUMBIA AND SNAKE RIVERS: FOOD, WINE AND HISTORY

EXPEDITIONS

October 17-24, 2026 | Aboard National Geographic Sea Bird

SPECIAL OFFER: 5% GROUP SAVINGS

Dear National Trust Traveler,

Imagine tracing the rivers that shaped the Pacific Northwest—where every bend reveals a new flavor, a new story, a new discovery for the senses. This voyage is a celebration of abundance: crisp wines, farm-fresh ingredients and the stunning landscapes that bring them to life.

National Trust for Historic Preservation

National Trust Tours

Presented in collaboration with Food & Wine, the journey invites you to explore the region's rich culinary traditions firsthand. As we sail the Columbia and Snake Rivers, you'll taste the essence of your surroundings in every meal and glass, and experience its rugged wilderness in every canyon and valley. A team of naturalists and culinary experts will lead you through vineyards and farmlands, along hiking trails and quiet waterways—revealing the deep connection between land, culture and cuisine.

ITINERARY HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE:

- Seasonal menus featuring sustainable ingredients sourced primarily from the Pacific Northwest
- Nightly tastings of the region's best wines, personally selected by Food & Wine magazine's Executive Wine Editor, Ray Isle
- Witness geological wonders—from Beacon Rock to Multnomah and Palouse Falls—and explore up close and at water level aboard kayaks and Zodiacs
- Visit art galleries, sweets shops and tasting rooms in delightful downtown Walla Walla
- Gain exclusive access, including a private reception at the Columbia Gorge Museum as well as private tours and tastings with local winemakers

I hope you will be able to join us October 17-24, 2026. To reserve your place, call National Trust Tours at 888-484-8785 or 202-588-6300.

Sincerely,
