Day 1 | October 9

Depart your home city for an overnight flight to Nice, France.

Day 2 | October 10R*Nice, France

Welcome to Nice, a truly memorable entryway to the Côte d'Azur. Drive up Mont Boron to enjoy an unbeatable scenic view of the Old Port of Nice, the Cap-Ferrat peninsula and, of course, the famously blue water the Côte d'Azur is named for. Check in to the deluxe Maison Albar-Le Victoria and settle in. Join your fellow travelers for a Welcome Reception this evening — raise a glass to your upcoming adventure!

Day 3 | October 11B*Nice

Perched on a rocky promontory overlooking the Mediterranean, the magnificent Villa Ephrussi de Rothschild is surrounded by nine themed gardens: French, Spanish, Florentine, stone, Japanese, exotic, Provençal and rose. The property is a fascinating tribute to the Belle Époque period. Transfer to lovely Villefranche-Sur-Mer, a charming resort town boasting hidden stone alleyways, pastel-colored houses and sublime views of the sea. Make your own plans for lunch, then spend some time exploring independently.

Day 4 | October 12B-L*Hilltowns of the Rivas

Today choose an included excursion: Visit the medieval hilltop village of St. Paul de Vence, which has drawn artists and art aficionados for centuries. Picasso, Dufy, Matisse and Chagall have all spent time and created works here. After a guided walking tour, enjoy time to explore on your own. Stroll the leafy lanes filled with art galleries, workshops, boutiques and cafés. Or head to Grasse, a lovely hillside town famous for its perfume industry. Visit the perfumery and participate in a unique workshop to create your own scent.

Day 5 | October 13B-R-D*Nice | Antibes | Embark

Head to the charming seaside town of Antibes, where the chic glamor of the French Riviera is wrapped in a welcoming vibe. Antibes was founded as a Greek colony in the fourth century B.C. More recently, it has been home to

St. Paul de Vence

Zelda and F. Scott Fitzgerald, Aristotle Onassis and Pablo Picasso. On a guided walking tour, stroll winding cobbled streets lined with pastel-hued stone buildings and colorful flower baskets. Pass Grimaldi Castle, built in the 12th century and now home to the Picasso Museum. Enjoy free time exploring the shops and cafés, and make your own plans for lunch. Then embark the deluxe Sea Cloud Spirit and settle in.

Day 6 | October 14 B-L-D

Monte Carlo, Monaco

In this tiny principality — the second-smallest country in the world — the Grimaldi family has led the country since the 13th century. Choose your excursion this morning. On a guided walking tour, visit the Cathedral of Our Lady Immaculate. Many of the Grimaldis are buried here, including Grace Kelly and Rainier III. Then tour the Prince's Palace, erected as an Italian fortress in A.D. 1191. Marvel at the sumptuous décor of the State Apartments, home to Monaco's royals. Or immerse yourself in splendor with guided visits to the Royal Car Collection (which showcases over a hundred impressive vehicles!) and the luxe Monte Carlo Casino.

Day 7 | October 15 B-L-D

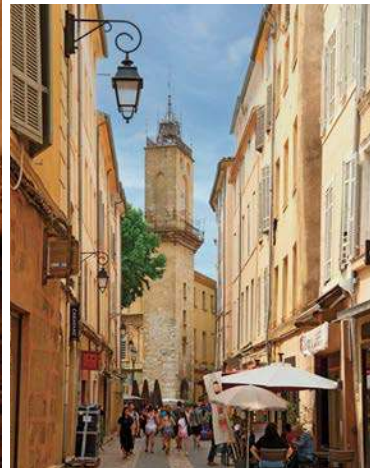

Marseille, France

Today, choose your included excursion. Spend a leisurely day in Aix-en-Provence, the birthplace of Paul Cezanne, known as the “City of a Thousand Fountains.” Stroll one of the most beautiful streets in France, the elegant Cours Mirabeau Avenue, lined with trees and 17th- and 18th-century mansions. Admire the beautiful parks, architecture, gardens and (of course!) fountains. Or,

Picasso Museum, Antibes

Aix-en-Provence

tour the city of Marseille. Admire the panoramic view from the hilltop Notre-Dame de la Garde. Drive along the famous Corniche Kennedy, skirting the Mediterranean, past the Prado Beach and the Longchamp Palace. See Canebière, Marseille's most famous and historic street, lined with shops, hotels, cafés and banks. Finally, wrap up at Le Panier, the historic hillside neighborhood. Spend the afternoon at leisure, either aboard the ship or exploring Marseille's Old Port on your own.

Day 8 | October 16 B-L-R-D

St. Tropez

A chic French Riviera destination, St. Tropez has drawn artists, filmmakers and the international elite for years. The town is the epitome of modern luxury, yet retains an old-world charm. Famed for its beautiful beaches, designer shops and vibrant nightlife, St. Tropez also boasts a charming old quarter. Beneath the orange and ocher church bell tower, narrow streets lined with pastel-painted houses lead to a picturesque harbor.

Choose your own excursion: Take a guided walking tour with tastings of local culinary specialties (the unmissable Tarte Tropézienne is a soft, orange-blossom-flavored cake filled with a rich, creamy custard and topped with pearl sugar!). Or visit a local vineyard, esteemed for its production of rosé wines. This evening, bid adieu to your fellow travelers at a Farewell Reception and Dinner on board.

Day 9 | October 17 B

Nice | Disembark | Return to Home City

Arrive in Nice, disembark and transfer to the airport for your flight back to your home city.

Note: This itinerary is subject to change due to local conditions.

Catching the Wind

Experience a cruise like no other aboard Sea Cloud Spirit, an authentic three-masted windjammer. The ship, built in 2021 to combine traditional sailing with modern amenities, boasts 28 sails and 18 deckhands to hoist them.

In 1931, Wall Street broker Edward Francis Hutton gave Sea Cloud to his wife, heiress and businesswoman Marjorie Merriweather Post. The opulent four-master was the world's largest private yacht. After a fabled life (including a stint in World War II), Sea Cloud has been restored and again sails the seas, along with siblings Sea Cloud II and Sea Cloud Spirit. Your captain and crew are committed to using the wind to sail whenever possible, which makes for an unparalleled passenger experience. Watch as the deck hands climb the rigging (some 190 feet above the sea!), loosen the heavy sails and haul lines in from the deck. As the sails catch the wind, you'll feel your spirits — and the Spirit itself — lift and soar.
