Day 1 | October 5

Depart for Lisbon, Portugal.

Day 2 | October 6D

Lisbon, Portugal | Embark

Upon arrival, embark the deluxe World Voyager.

Say hello to fellow travelers over dinner aboard the ship.

Day 3 | October 7B-L-R-D

Day at Sea

Today, spend a leisurely day at sea. Settle into the relaxed rhythm of life on board, perhaps enjoying the ship's inviting lounges and views as you get acquainted with your ship and fellow travelers. Gather later for a Welcome Reception, followed by dinner.

Day 4 | October 8B-L-D

Seville, Spain

Venture out on a guided walk through Seville, exploring highlights such as the colorful Santa Cruz neighborhood and the UNESCO-listed Seville Cathedral. Built on the site of a former Moorish mosque, the cathedral was begun in 1401 and took more than a century to complete. Inside, discover a remarkable blend of Moorish, Gothic, Renaissance and baroque influences, as well as the tomb of Christopher Columbus. Continue to the iconic Giralda, the cathedral's former minaret, and enjoy sweeping views across Seville.

This afternoon, spend free time exploring Seville at your own pace. Perhaps wander atmospheric lanes, pause at a lively plaza for tapas and wine, browse local shops or relax at a sidewalk café.

Day 5 | October 9B-L-D

Seville

Spend the morning at leisure. Seville's streets are lined with orange trees, alluring plazas and lively tapas bars that echo with the passionate rhythms of guitar and dance. By day, the city dazzles with historical grandeur, and is alive with bustling cafés, music and a warm Andalusian spirit.

Day 6 | October 10B-L-D

Gibraltar, United Kingdom

After lunch, disembark to visit The Rock of Gibraltar, considered by the ancient Greeks and Romans to be one of the two Pillars of Hercules that marked the boundary of the known world. Those who wish may take a steep walk to the "Top of the Rock" for sweeping views across the Strait of Gibraltar toward the coast of Africa. Continue to St. Michael's Cave, famous for its stunning stalagmite formations, and watch the amusing antics of Barbary macaques, Europe's only colony of wild monkeys. Also, explore the unique Great Siege Tunnels, excavated by British Army engineers in the late 18th century to defend the colony.

Cleansing fountain, Casablanca

Day 7 | October 11 B-L-D
Málaga, Spain

Greet the day in Málaga, on Spain's famous Costa del Sol, and discover the city's rich history and vibrant ambience. Begin in the Plaza de la Constitución, the heart of the historic center, before visiting Málaga Cathedral. Stroll through the charming streets

Musician, Tangier

toward the harbor, pausing at the Mercado de Atarazanas, a striking 19th-century market hall known for its Moorish-inspired stained glass and elegant ironwork. Continue to the Roman Theater, nestled at the foot of the Alcazaba, the impressive Moorish palace-fortress overlooking the city. Conclude your tour along Málaga's modern waterfront promenade, where palm-lined walkways, modern art installations and views of the harbor create a refreshing contrast to the city's historic heart. Those wishing for a more active experience may continue on foot to the Alcazaba, built by Muslim rulers during the era of Al-Andalus.

Day 8 | October 12 B-L-R-D
Tangier, Morocco

Over the centuries, Tangier has captivated writers, artists and adventurers, including Henri Matisse and Eugène Delacroix. Explore the labyrinthine medina and legendary souks, listening to stories of the city as you pass local weavers and artisans at work. Walk through the vibrant Mendoubia Gardens, where abundant flowers, towering palms and cypress trees surround fountains and offer views toward the sea. Continue through the narrow

Alcazaba, Málaga

Plaza de España, Seville

alleyways of Petit Socco, once a lively gathering place for artists, writers and travelers.

After a lunch featuring local cuisine, enjoy leisure time to browse the souks, discover hidden corners of the medina.

Tonight, gather with fellow travelers for a Farewell Reception and Dinner to celebrate the memorable experiences of your voyage.

Day 9 | October 13 B-L-R-D Casablanca | Rabat

During today's excursion, discover Casablanca's blend of North African and French influences. Begin at the impressive Hassan II Mosque, dramatically situated on a promontory overlooking the Atlantic Ocean. Admire its soaring architecture, intricate Moroccan details and expansive marble floors; the mosque is among the largest in Africa and is one of the few mosques in Morocco open to non-Muslim visitors.

Continue to Rabat, Morocco's elegant capital, and savor a traditional Moroccan lunch. A panoramic tour introduces you to the city's historic and cultural landmarks, including the Royal Palace, set amid expansive grounds; the Chellah, a peaceful complex of ancient Roman and Islamic ruins; and the Hassan Tower, Rabat's most recognizable landmark. Conclude at the stately Mohammed V Mausoleum, the final resting place of King Mohammed V and his sons, King Hassan II and Prince Moulay Abdallah.

Day 10 | October 14 B Casablanca | Disembark | Return to Home City

Transfer to the airport for your flight home.

Note: This itinerary is subject to change due to local conditions.

Cultural Crossroads

Nothing evokes mystery and intrigue quite like Morocco, a multicultural nation rich in royal tradition, delectable cuisine and exquisite architectural treasures. Located across the Strait of Gibraltar from Spain, it is a land of colorful souks and lively medinas, mighty mosques and grand palaces. As our journey carries you from the Iberian Peninsula across the Strait of Gibraltar, discover Casablanca and the UNESCO World Heritage city of Rabat, where centuries of history and cultural exchange come vividly to life. Trace the rise and fall of empires that shaped the cities and cultures of this region, creating a vibrant mosaic of art, religion and tradition. Centuries of exchange fostered advances in mathematics, science, medicine, horticulture and philosophy, transforming these crossroads between Africa and Europe into centers of learning, commerce and discovery.
