A World of Discovery

AH! Connects | Greek Night.

Join hands for a joyful Kalamatianos folk dance at a fun-filled farewell celebration featuring delicious cuisine, wine and music.

Athens Tour. Explore the birthplace of democracy and Western philosophy, theater and architecture. See top sites including Athens Academy, the University of Athens and the National Library. Ascend the Acropolis and admire the classical lines of the Parthenon. At the Acropolis Museum, view splendid artifacts from the Acropolis' slopes and study the ruins of an ancient neighborhood through a glass floor. (Active)

Mycenae & Greek Wine. Learn about this powerful Bronze Age kingdom, a great naval power with influence throughout the Mediterranean, on a guided visit within its remarkable ruins. According to legend, Mycenae was home to Agamemnon, the king who conquered Troy. Afterward, enjoy lunch and a tasting at a winery. (Active)

Kalamata's History & Cuisine. Stroll through Kalamata's picturesque old town, and delve into its tumultuous past as you see its pretty harbor and landmarks. Stop on your route to try freshly caught seafood and Kalamata's namesake olives.

Messene. Set off to this under-the-radar gem in the countryside and be awed by the impressive ruins of this classical city founded in 369 B.C. Unlike other sites, Messene was never built over by other settlements, so its remains are exceptionally intact. Marvel at the temples, agora, theater, stadium and more on a guided tour. (Active)

Sparta, Mystras & the Greek Olive.

Walk amid the ruins of ancient Sparta, one of Greece's greatest city-states. Then, take in the spectacular ruins of the medieval Byzantine city of Mystras dramatically set on a mountainside over the Laconian plain. Admire monasteries, chapels and churches adorned with frescoes in this former cultural capital. Later, after lunch in Mystras, visit Sparta's informative Museum of the Olive and Greek Olive Oil, which details why the olive is so prized by the Greeks. (Active)

Ancient Olympia. This sacred place dedicated to Zeus was the celebrated birthplace of the ancient Olympic Games, first played in his honor in 776 B.C. On the grounds, see the sites of renowned sporting events, discover what the earliest Olympic games were like, and study rare artifacts in the Archaeological Museum.

Corinth. At the archaeological site of ancient Corinth, view the Temple of Apollo and ruins from the Roman era when Corinth was a major colony and trading center. See the Corinth Canal, which opened in 1893.
